Annual Honey Show"

The Annual Honey Show at the Freedom Fest Fair will be held July 6, 2010 at the Horse Park of New Jersey. The show is open to any one, professional or beginner.

Annual Honey Show Rules:

All entries must be the product of the entrant's apiary and must have been produced since January 1, 2010. Entries must be delivered by 2:00 the day of the show.

Honey:

1- Classes 1-4 (Extracted Honey)

Entries must be in glass Queenline type jars or Gamber Classic honey jars with plain metal or plastic lids. Honey color will be graded by the show chairman and judged on density, absence of crystals, cleanliness, flavor, fill and container appearance.

2- Class 5 (Sections and Cut Comb):

Sections must be in window cartons. And Ross Rounds must have transparent plastic lids. Cut comb should be in clear plastic containers.

3- Class 6 (Creamed Honey) and Class 7 (Chunk Honey):

Must be in clear, one- pound glass jars. Creamed honey will be graded on fineness of crystals, uniformity and firmness, cleanliness and freedom from foam, flavor and fill. Chunk honey is graded on cut, cleanliness, uniformity, density and flavor of liquid.

4- Class 8 (Frame of Honey):

Must be displayed in bee proof cases, which have both sides made of transparent glass or plastic. The frame is judged on uniformity, absence of uncapped cells and watery cappings, cleanliness, freedom from granulation and pollen.

Beeswax:

Classes 8,9,10 & 11

1- It is suggested that entries be covered with clear plastic.

2- The optimum color for pure beeswax is light yellow.

Photography:

Class # 12

Prints should be 5"X7" or larger, mounted on a mounting board that extends at least one inch beyond the print on each side. No frames are permitted. Photos must relate to beekeeping and can be close ups. scenic (e.g. apiaries, hives) or portrait (person who is obviously a beekeeper or performing a beekeeping procedure in an appropriate setting).
